Title 17. Judges and Chancellors
Chapter 3. Conferences
➡ Part 2. General Sessions Judges Conference

§ 17-3-201. Creation; members

(a) There is hereby created the Tennessee general sessions judges conference, which shall be the official organization of the general sessions judges in this state.

(b) The membership of the conference shall consist of all judges of general sessions courts in the state.

§ 17-3-202. Rules

The Tennessee general sessions judges conference is authorized to adopt and, from time to time, amend such rules, regulations or bylaws as it considers necessary for the conduct of its affairs. Such rules, regulations or bylaws may provide for such officers as the conference considers advisable, for the method of selection of such officers, for the selection of a time and place within the state of Tennessee for annual meetings of the conference, and for such other matters consistent with the general laws of the state as the conference may choose.

§ 17-3-203. Meetings

The conference shall meet annually for the consideration of any and all matters pertaining to the discharge of the official duties and obligations of its members, to the end that there shall be a more efficient and prompt administration of justice in the general sessions courts of this state.

§ 17-3-204. Attendance; reimbursement

(a) It is the official duty of each member of the conference to attend the annual meeting unless unable to do so because of physical incapacity.

(b) Each member shall be compensated for the member's actual expenses in attending the annual meeting. Such expenses shall be paid upon a verified statement of expenses being filed with the county executive by any member incurring such expenses. Expenses shall be paid by the trustee upon warrant of the county executive from the general fund of the county in which the member serves as judge.

Current with laws from the 2009 First Reg. Sess., eff. through May 19, 2009.
